MRS. FRED M. GRIFFIN
... Prepares Stroganoff

Lady Hunter Gives Top Recipe for 'Venison'

Mrs. Fred M. Griffin, 4131 de las Tortugas, takes time out from her busy schedule of mother, housewife, PTA president and hobbyist to contribute some of her "best" recipes given the nod by her family.

The Griffins moved to Torrance two and a half years ago. She is now completing forward to summer camp with her term as Riviera PTA president and says "we are most enthusiastic about Torrance especially its schools." Schooling of course is of vital interest since there are four young Griffins, Fred, 14, Jim 12, Greg, 10 and Meg, 7.

Mr. Griffin has been employed in the tooling division of Norair for the past 18 years. He is a member of the Redondo Masonic lodge and Opportunity (Daylight) lodge. All three boys are members of the YMCA and are looking forward to summer camp with the Torrance YMCA.

Meg is a Brownie and her mother is assistant leader to the group. The Griffin family attends the South Bay Christian church. A much-sought-after recipe heads Mrs. Griffin's list. It is "Venison Stroganoff." Since Mr. and Mrs. Griffin enjoy a yearly deer hunt in northern California, she has experimented with the cooking of venison and she gives her favorite recipe.

Venison Stroganoff

- | | |
|-----------------------------------|------------------------------|
| 1 lbs. venison (cut in 3/4 cubes) | 1 can tomato soup |
| 3 tbsp. fat | 1 tbsp. Worcestershire sauce |
| 3/4 c. chopped onion | 6 drops tabasco |
| 1 garlic clove (minced) | 1/2 tsp. salt |
| 1 6 oz. can mushrooms | 1/8 tsp. pepper |
| 1 cup sour cream | |

On all venison strip off fat to remove gamey flavor. Dip venison in flour, brown in hot fat. Add onion, garlic and mushrooms. Combine remaining ingredients; pour over meat. Simmer until tender, about 1 hour. May be served over rice or spaghetti. Serves 4-6. This recipe can be doubled or tripled and the extra may be put in the freezer for quick meals.

Grandmother's Delight

(Dessert or Salad)

- | | |

| 1 sm. jar marshmallow cherries | 1 pkg. lemon jello |
| | 1/2 c mayonnaise |
| | 1 can pineapple (crushed) |

Chill all ingredients. Prepare jello, using 1 cup drained pineapple juice for the second cup of liquid. Let jello chill until soupy. Mash cream cheese, add cup of cherries, mayonnaise and pineapple. Add this to jello and lastly fold in whipped cream. Pour into mould and allow to set.
